The recognition of Cuba is supposed to be the next political move. There is not a man in the United States who does not believe in the move.

Justice Field will go on the retired list. He has saved over a million dollars out of his salary and the Supreme Bench can well stand the purification that his retirement will give it.

The Lovelock flour mills are now running fifteen hours per day, the water having increased sufficiently to do this. During the fall water was a little short and the mill in consequence could not run steadily.

The other day a man said "There ain't nothin' in the Bodie paper." The same person, who is hardly qualified to be the janitor of a water-closet, could not interpret the label on a jug of sheep-dip. But the law permits him to vote.

Since the debate between Rev. Donald Ross and Father York began in San Francisco, the big dailies have been paying great attention to the churches, and a clergyman can't pray, read or preach that the snap shot camera don't click on him. All these little tricks mean new subscribers and more nickels.

The advertisement of the Waverly Bicycle Company will be found in another column. The Waverly is the highest of all high grade wheels and is popular among cyclists. Oleovich & Oleovich are the local agents and they will take pleasure in showing the wheel to any one wishing to have its superiority explained.

GOVERNMENT IN EARNEST

What the U. S. Attorney Has to Say of the Coffin Case.

U. S. District Attorney Jones was interviewed yesterday in his office by the APPEAL.

Touching on the matter of the contempt case of Tremnor Coffin he said: "As a representative of the Government in this case I will say that the matter will be pushed to a full conclusion. I shall proceed in the case and fight it to a finish."

"There are three ways of disposing of such a case: by contempt proceedings, by information and belief and by an indictment by the Grand Jury. If it is necessary to exhaust all three of these remedies I will exhaust them. I am also aware of the fact that there has been a great deal of public talk regarding these cases. It was claimed that secret society influences, money, friendship and everything else would be brought to bear to smother proceedings."

"Months ago men were offering ten to one bets that neither Jones nor Honey would be indicted, or ever proceeded against, and that my friendship for parties implicated would serve me from my duty as a Government officer. Well we have disposed of one case by securing a conviction. Honey is in jail under an eight years' sentence and $5,000 fine; Brule is in jail under sentence of fine and imprisonment and I can say right here that any man who in the slightest degree attempts to hamper the administration of justice in these cases or interferes with the Government officers will go to jail if I can land them there, irrespective of friendship, secret societies or anything else."

"Gen. Clark who has rendered the most efficient service in these cases feels exactly as I do, and anybody knows the General well enough to know that no power can swerve him a hair."

"I had my own reasons for not pressing the contempt case to trial. I do not consider that it is attending to their business and is entitled to take the public into their confidence. All persons acting for the Government in these cases are willing to be judged by results and we all know just what we are about."

"Judging from the progress already made in the cases the people have no cause for misapprehension that business will not be attended to."

The Wrong Man.

The killing of the two men, Jones and Messer, in Humboldt county several weeks ago caused the arrest of a man named Escheviria, and he was still in custody when Buster, the Indian made a full confession which exonerated the man in custody.

Buster confessed the murder of the two men since his arrest and claims that he watched for an opportunity to kill Jones, but Messer and he were together all of the time so he had to kill them both. He admits to having killed Spanish Frank first then Jones. He fired four shots. Escheviria is probably released by this time, as the confession of Buster will save him, but the circumstances pointed very strongly at first and his actions indicated that he knew more about the murder than he cared to tell.

Death of Wm. Houtman.

Word was received by Gilbert Briggs yesterday announcing the death of William Houtman at San Francisco. He died at Dr. McLane's hospital, where he underwent an operation. Billy Houtman, as he was familiarly called was an old resident of Douglas county. He was the partner of Jake Rodenbaugh in the coal burning business, and Billy was as well if not better known here than in the valley. He was a bachelor about 60 years of age.

Mr. Rodenbaugh will be here today to make arrangements for the funeral.

Board of Pardons.

The Board of Pardon's continued their session yesterday:

Robert St. Clair, murder in the second degree, sentenced to twenty-five years from October 11, 1880, from Humboldt county. Pardon granted. Sinclair, from Washoe county. Pardon granted.

E. A. Herting, manslaughter, from Storey county in 1894, ten year sentence.

The Board adjourned until this morning when they will decide the Herting case.

The Governor Improving.

Attorney General Beatty received the following encouraging dispatch concerning Governor Jones condition yesterday:

Governor has improved a little in every way since yesterday. Pain subsiding.

NO ACTION TAKEN.

The Court Adjourns Until 11 O'clock Tuesday.

The fact that the citation of Tremnor Coffin for contempt of Court was to come up in the U. S. District Court drew a large crowd yesterday morning many going early to secure seats.

At a few moments before the Court was called to order Coffin came in with his usual bad front and stalked up to the water tank to drink, as he had many times a day during the Honey trial. He was smiling and confident and the proceedings did not seem to disturb him in the least.

The Court came in at five minutes past ten and the U. S. Marshal hammered his knuckles on the table and called the Court to order.

"Any motions?" asked the Judge.

There was no response.

"Any other business before the Court?"

The crowd in the seats leaned forward a little and there was a dead silence. It lasted a few seconds and there was no response.

"This Court stands adjourned until 11 o'clock Tuesday morning."

There was a look of surprise on the faces of the crowd and in about a minute the room was cleared.

For the next ten minutes loads of men were on the sidewalk all casting the cause of the delay, but no one seemed to have any reason to offer. Everyone supposed that Coffin would have followed post haste in the footsteps of Brule, and people seemed unable to understand why proceedings shouldn't be just as lively in the case of Coffin as Brule.

Nothing whatever could be learned from the officers of the Court. It was the general opinion that the Government knew what it was about and was really arranging to have Coffin regularly indicted before G and J try.

In Case of War.

Acting Governor Sadler sent the following in answer to the St. Louis Republican's query for the strength of the Nevada militia:

"If England has purchased Cuba and purchased beyond question would afford the assertion of the Monroe doctrine is entirely. The people of Nevada do not and would not depend entirely upon the enrolled militia though in case of war with any foreign power the Nevada, Militia, Infantry and Artillery, about eleven hundred strong could be mobilized in forty-eight hours after the call to arms."

R. SADLER, Acting Governor.

The fact that Tom Wran became a father at 20 minutes of 12 o'clock Christmas day is causing great merriment in Eureka county. He just missed the Caronicle's silver cup and is still trying to get an approximate price.

Tom's Eureka friends insist that their child shall have a tin cup appropriately engraved. When now insist that the clock was too slow and is trying to convince DeYoung that such was the case.

A man in Carson who sold some land the other day for a trifle learned a few days later of at least a dozen people who would have given him twice the sum had they only known it was for sale. He now wonders if it would not have been a good plan to have advertised the land and let his neighbors know that he wanted to sell.

In '89 came the California mining excitement; in '90 Washoe and Pike's Peak; in '91 White Pine; in '92 Leadville; in '93 South Africa, but we won't have to wait till '99 to complete the sequence; '96 will show great activity in mining.—Ex.

CHEAP CUSTOM WORK A DECEPTION.

A style of tailoring is rapidly gaining headway which is but an imposition upon the consumer and a detriment to the workman. The cheap custom work or what is called "special order work," is a shrewd dodge for the purpose of deceiving the customer into the belief that he is obtaining custom work at ready made prices. The real worth of custom work lies in the exactness of the fit, and the thoroughness in which it is made. Cheap custom work is therefore inferior to ready made work.

Large concerns, some also engaged in ready made work have grown up of late and depend for patronage upon retail stores, and have numerous agents scattered everywhere soliciting orders and gain trade because of the strikingly cheap prices offered for goods made to order. As a rule these agents seldom obtain an order twice from the same person.

It is about time that this scheme was exposed to the people and ABE COHN of the EMPORIUM shows up the fraud. If you want clothes that fit and are tried on as often as is necessary call at the EMPORIUM Court House Building, Carson City, Nevada.
